Act No. 7, 2009

ELECTORAL AMENDMENT ACT, 2009

declaring that the applicant has reached the age of 18 years and stating the grounds on which the parent, guardian or other person concerned declares that the applicant has reached the age of 18 years; or”.

Amendment of section 18 of Act No. 24 of 1992, as amended by section 6 of Act No. 23 of 1994 and section 6 of Act No. 7 of 2003

6. Section 18 of the principal Act is amended by the substitution for paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of the following paragraph:

“(b) furnish the applicant concerned with the application form accompanied by the refusal form and inform him or her that he or she may, in accordance with the provisions of subsection 19, appeal against the refusal to the magistrate or, in the case of a temporary registration point, to the staff member referred to in that section.”.

Substitution of section 19 of Act No. 24 of 1992, as amended by section 7 of Act No. 7 of 2003

7. The following section is substituted for section 19 of the principal Act:

“Appeal against refusal to register

19. (1) Any person whose application for registration has been refused under section 18 and who desires to appeal against such refusal, may, on the day, at the time and place determined in terms of subsection (2) and of which he or she shall be notified in writing, appeal against such refusal -

(a) to the magistrate designated for that purpose by the Permanent Secretary: Justice by notice in the Gazette, in respect of the constituency or local authority area, as the case may be, in respect of which such person has applied for registration; or in the manner prescribed by subsection (3), but where such refusal relates to that person’s application for registration in respect of both a constituency and a local authority area, that person may so appeal against such refusal to the magistrate so designated in respect of both that constituency and local authority area.

(b) in the case of a person who has applied for registration at a temporary registration point, to a staff member other than the registration officer, appointed by the Commission, on the recommendation of the Minister of Foreign Affairs by notice in the Gazette,

(2) (a) The magistrate or staff member referred to in subsection (1), shall determine the day, which day shall not be later than 15 days after the date of the refusal, and the time and place for the hearing of an appeal referred to in that subsection.
(b) The provisions of paragraph (a) shall not prohibit the magistrate or staff member from hearing an appeal at any place or time determined by him or her and communicated to the person who wishes to appeal, or at any place where both the magistrate or the staff member and that person are at any time.

(3) On a day, at a time and place determined in accordance with the provisions of this section, the person who wishes to appeal (hereinafter called the appellant), shall -

(a) appear in person before the magistrate or staff member concerned;

(b) submit the forms referred to in section 18(2)(b), to such magistrate or staff member;

(c) state the grounds on which he or she appeals against the refusal of his or her application; and

(d) adduce such proof and make such statements he or she may wish to be considered in support of his or her appeal.

(4) (a) Subject to the provisions of subsection (3), the hearing of the appeal may be conducted by the magistrate or staff member in such manner as in his or her opinion is best calculated to enable him or her to arrive at a just decision in the matter.

(b) Without derogating from the generality of the provisions of paragraph (a), the magistrate or staff member may -

(i) call any person who is present to appear before him or her and require or allow such person to give such oral evidence or produce such other proof as in the opinion of the magistrate or staff member may assist him or her in deciding the matter;

(ii) administer an oath or affirmation to any person appearing before him or her;

(iii) examine or allow the examination of any person so appearing;

(iv) postpone the hearing at any stage of the proceedings to a day determined by him or her, but not later than 5 days.

(5) The magistrate or staff member shall keep a record of the proceedings and such record shall be attached to and form part of the relevant application form.

(6) Subject to the proviso to Article 12(1)(a) of the Namibian Constitution, the hearing of an appeal shall be open to the public.
(7) A magistrate or staff member may allow an appeal heard by him or her under this section, or may dismiss such appeal, and may also dismiss it if the appellant fails to appear before him or her any day determined for the hearing or further hearing under this section.

(8) The magistrate or staff member shall record his or her decision under subsection (7) on the relevant refusal form.

(9) If the magistrate or staff member dismisses the appeal, he or she shall keep the application and refusal forms in his or her office.

(10) If the magistrate or staff member allows the appeal, he or she shall forthwith refer the appellant to the registration officer concerned, and cause the application and refusal forms to be submitted to that registration officer.

(11) If an appellant who has appealed under subsection (1)(b) to a staff member is not at the temporary registration point concerned when the appeal concerned is to be heard, the staff member concerned shall forward the appeal together with the forms referred to in section 18(2)(b) to the magistrate designated for that purpose by the Permanent Secretary: Justice by notice in the Gazette in respect of the constituency in respect of which such person has applied for registration.”.

Amendment of section 20 of Act No. 24 of 1992, as amended by section 7 of Act No. 23 of 1994, section 6 of Act No. 30 of 1998 and section 8 of Act No. 7 of 2003

8. Section 20 of the principal Act is amended -

(a) by the substitution for the words preceding paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of the following words:

“If the registration officer concerned does not under section 18 refuse to register an applicant, or if the applicant is a person referred to the registration officer concerned by the magistrate or staff member under section 19(10), the registration officer shall register, subject to the other provisions of this Part, the applicant in respect of the election for which he or she has so applied for registration as provided in section 16(1), by –”; and

(b) by the substitution for subsection (2) of the following subsection:

“(2) If the applicant is a person who has been referred to the registration officer concerned by the magistrate or staff member under section 19(10), the registration officer concerned shall comply with the provisions of subsection (1) of this section even if he or she is not the registration officer who has refused the application in the first place.”.

Substitution of section 22 of Act No. 24 of 1992, as amended by section 10 of Act No. 7 of 2003

9. The following section is substituted for section 22 of the principal Act:
22. (1) Any person whose name appears on the relevant provisional voter’s register referred to in section 21 or any registered political party, may, within the period referred to in paragraph (b) of that section, lodge an objection in writing to the inclusion of the name of any person on that register with the magistrate referred to in section 19(1) designated for the constituency or local authority area, as the case may be, in respect of which the name of such other person is so included, on the grounds that he or she –

(a) is not entitled or qualified by or under the provisions of section 13 to be registered as a voter; or

(b) is not complying with the requirements in relation to residence as contemplated in that section.

(2) When an objection is lodged under subsection (1) against any name of a person being included in the relevant provisional voters’ register, the magistrate concerned shall, unless he or she is satisfied that the ground of the objection is not a ground on which the name could be excluded from that register, forthwith serve or cause to be served a notice on the person whose registration is objected to, informing him or her of the objection and the nature thereof, and that he or she may make representations to the magistrate concerned in regard thereto within a period of 15 days after the date of the notice.

(3) When an objection has been lodged under subsection (1), the magistrate shall, upon expiration of the period referred to in subsection (2), if that subsection applies, determine the objection.

(4) The magistrate may–

(a) allow the objection and direct the Director to exclude the name of the person against whom the objection was made, from the relevant provisional voters’ register; or

(b) dismiss the objection.

(5) The magistrate shall notify in writing any person or registered political party who under subsection (1) lodged an objection and under subsection (2) made representations in connection with such objection and the Director, of his or her decision regarding the objection.

(6) If an objection has been allowed under subsection (4) and a request for the submission of a statement of the case is not made under subsection (1) of section 23 within three days after the date on which the objection was allowed, or if so made, is refused in terms of paragraph (b) of that subsection, the relevant voter registration card issued to the respondent shall cease to be valid, and whereupon the magistrate concerned shall forthwith inform the Director accordingly and transmit that voter registration card to the Director for cancellation.

(7) In subsection (1) and, in the case of subsection (2), in relation to the service of any notice referred to in that subsection, “magistrate” includes any member of a magistrate’s staff authorized by him or her to act in his or her place.”.

Amendment of section 39 of Act No. 24 of 1992, as amended by section 38 of Act No. 7 of 2003

10.  Section 39 of the principal Act is amended by –

(a)  the insertion immediately after subsection (4) of the following subsection (4A);

“For (a) The Director shall, prior to registration of a political party, publish or cause to be published by notice in the Gazette –

(i)  the name of the political party applying for registration as a political party in terms of subsection (1), including the abbreviated name of such party referred to in subsection (3)(b);

(ii)  the particulars set out in subsections (3)(d) and (e) and (4)(a); and

(iii)  the distinctive symbol, referred to in subsection (3)(f) of the political party, which may appear on the ballot paper.

(b)  A registered political party may in accordance with the procedures set out in subsection (5A) object to any of the particulars published in terms of paragraph (a), for reason that –

(i)  the name of the political party or its abbreviated name is being used by a registered political party or is so similar to the name of a registered political party that it may cause confusion to voters;

(ii)  the symbol referred to in subparagraph (a)(iii) is a symbol being used by a registered political party or is so similar to the symbol of a registered political party that it may cause confusion to voters.

(c)  A registered political party or any other person may in accordance with the procedures set out in subsection (5A) object to any name published as a member who signed the declaration referred to in subparagraph (a)(ii), for reason that such member’s name does not appear on the national voter’s register.”;
Act No. 7, 2009

ELECTORAL AMENDMENT ACT, 2009

(b) the substitution for subsection (5) of the following subsection:

“(5) If a change occurs in relation to the name, abbreviated name, distinctive symbol, the authorized representative or the business or postal address of the office of the authorized representative of any political party, the political party concerned shall notify the Commission in writing of such change within 30 days after the date on which the change has occurred and, in the case of a change of the name or abbreviated name of the political party, transmit the political party’s registration certificate together with such notification, and the Director shall publish or cause to be published by notice in the Gazette such changed name, abbreviated name and distinctive symbol and call upon registered political parties to make objections, if any, thereto in accordance with the procedures set out in subsection (5A).”.

(c) the insertion immediately after subsection (5) of the following subsection (5A):

“(5A) (a) A registered political party or, where applicable, any other person may within 30 days from the date of publication of the notice referred to in subsections (4A)(a) or (5) lodge an objection to any particular contained therein to the Commission setting out the reasons for such objection.

(b) When an objection is lodged under paragraph (a) the Commission shall within 14 days of receipt of such objection make a determination thereon and shall, as soon as reasonably possible, serve or cause to be served upon such political party against whom an objection has been lodged as well as the political party or such other person, referred to in paragraph (a) who lodged the objection, notice of such determination.

(c) The Commission may either –

(i) allow for the objection and allow such political party or such registered political party to rectify, within 60 days of receipt of the determination, such particular against which an objection has been lodged; or

(ii) dismiss the objection.

(d) If a political party is not satisfied with the determination made under paragraph (b), such political party may appeal to a court.”.

Substitution of section 41 of Act No. 24 of 1992

11. The following section is substituted for section 41 of the principal Act:
“Cancellation of registration as political party

41. The Commission shall direct the Director to cancel the registration of a political party as a political party -

(a) if it is notified in a letter signed by any authorised representative referred to in subsection (3)(c) of section 39, of the party in question of a resolution taken by [that party in congress] an organ of the party having the power to do so, that that party has been dissolved or is going to be dissolved on a date which shall be specified in such letter; or

(b) if, after the authorised representative referred to in subsection (3)(c) of section 39 has been afforded an opportunity to be heard, [it is proved to the satisfaction] in the opinion of the Commission [that] any political party -

(i) has at any time after its registration failed to comply with any provision of subsection (1)(a) of [that] section 39 or section 43 or the guidelines issued [thereunder] under section 43;

(ii) no longer intends to be registered as a political party.”.

(d) leave the polling booth and display the ballot paper to the presiding officer or a polling officer in such a way that the official mark can be seen and, in the case of a voter voting by way of a tendered vote, in the presence of the presiding officer or a polling officer, place the ballot paper in the tendered vote envelope and seal it; and

(e) in the presence of the presiding officer or a polling officer, drop, as the case may be -

(i) the ballot paper in the ballot box for ordinary [votes] ballot papers;

(ii) the tendered vote envelope in the ballot box for tendered vote envelopes.”.

Amendment of section 84 of Act No. 24 of 1992, as amended by section 38 of Act No. 23 of 1994

24. Section 84 of the principal Act is amended by the substitution for subsections (2) and (3) of the following subsections:

“(2) The presiding officer, on the request in person of any voter who is incapacitated by blindness or other physical cause from voting in the manner prescribed by the other provisions of this Part, who has not requested to have his or her vote recorded by the presiding officer in terms of subsection (1) and who is accompanied by any other person, shall, if he or she is satisfied that such person is any family relative or friend of such voter and has reached the age of 18 years, permit such voter to vote with the assistance of the person accompanying him or her, and upon such permission being granted anything which is by the provisions of this Part required to be done to or by the said voter in connection with the recording of his or her vote may be done to or with the assistance of the person so accompanying him or her.

(3) Except as provided in this section, no person shall converse or in any other manner interfere with a voter at any time after he or she has been handed a ballot paper or entered a polling booth in order to vote by voting machine or until he or she leaves the polling booth.”.
Substitution of section 85 of Act No. 24 of 1992, as amended by section 39 of Act No. 23 of 1994

25. The following section is substituted for section 85 of the principal Act:

“Closing of poll at polling stations in or outside Namibia, counting of votes, sealing of ballot boxes and packets and ballot paper accounts

85. (1) Every presiding officer at a polling station in or outside Namibia shall immediately after the close of the poll and in the presence of the persons entitled in terms of section 78(1) to attend at the polling station, as may be in attendance -

(a) take charge of all the ballot boxes and any voting machines at the polling station;

(b) open all the ballot boxes for ordinary ballot papers and remove there from the ordinary ballot papers;

(c) open all the ballot boxes for tendered vote envelopes, open such tendered vote envelopes and remove there from the tendered vote ballot papers;

(d) open all the authorisation envelopes contemplated in section 80(2)(d) and remove there from the ballot papers concerned;

(e) obtain all the results of the poll concerned from any voting machine, and after ascertaining that, in the case of ballot papers, each ballot paper bears the official mark on the back thereof, count, assisted by the counting officers concerned, the votes recorded on such ballot papers and, in the case of voting by a voting machine, the result of the poll -

(i) in the case of an election on party lists, for each political party; or

(ii) in the case of an election otherwise than on party lists, for each candidate.

(2) The presiding officer shall reject and not count any ballot paper -

(a) which records votes to more than one political party or candidate, as the case may be;

(b) which does not bear the official stamp referred to in subsection (2) of section 82 and in respect of which he or she has reasonable grounds to believe that it has not been officially issued to a voter in terms of subsection (9) of that section; or

(c) which is unmarked or on which it is impossible to determine with certainty for which political party or candidate, as the case may be, the ballot is recorded.
Act No. 7, 2009
ELECTORAL AMENDMENT ACT, 2009

(3) The presiding officer shall not reject but shall count any ballot paper on which there is any writing or mark, by way of which a voter has clearly indicated his or her choice otherwise than by a cross on the ballot paper in question, and whether or not such writing or mark is recorded in the space provided for the marking of such ballot paper.

(4) The presiding officer shall in the presence of any of the persons referred to in subsection (1) endorse the word “rejected” on any ballot paper rejected in terms of any provision of subsection (2).

(5) An election agent may request a presiding officer to re-count the ballot papers and votes counted at a polling station until such time as he or she is satisfied of its accuracy: Provided that a presiding officer may refuse to do so if he or she is of the opinion that such request is at any time unreasonable.

(6) The presiding officer shall, when the counting of votes have been completed, announce in the prescribed manner the result of such count and inform the returning officer thereof and post a copy of the results at the polling station concerned, but in the case of a mobile polling station the results of all the polling stations for that mobile polling station shall be posted at the polling station used at the closing of the poll where the votes are counted.

(7) The presiding officer shall immediately after the announcement of the result as contemplated in subsection (6), make up into separate packets, so sealed -

(a) all ballot boxes containing the counted ordinary ballot papers in respect of every political party or candidate, as the case may be;

(b) all counted results of the poll in the case of voting machines in respect of every political party or candidate, as the case may be;

(c) all ballot boxes containing the counted tendered vote ballot papers in respect of every political party or candidate, as the case may be;

(d) all authorisation envelopes containing the ballot papers which were removed therefrom;

(e) all unused ballot papers;

(f) all spoilt ballot papers;

(g) the counterfoils of used and spoilt ballot papers;

(h) all voter registration cards seized in terms of section 82(6);

(i) the stamp for the official mark used at the polling station;

(j) any such other equipment or documents as may be prescribed, and
(k) the result of the count of the ballot papers and the result of the poll in the case of voting machines, and shall deliver or caused to be delivered to the returning officer concerned such sealed packets, as well as the empty ballot boxes and voting machines concerned.

(8) If the geographical location of the polling station or any other circumstance occasions that the presiding officer cannot deliver or cause to be delivered such packets, ballot boxes and voting machines, he or she shall place such packets, ballot boxes and voting machines in safe custody until he or she can deliver it or cause it to be delivered to the returning officer concerned.

(9) The sealed packets, ballot boxes and voting machines referred to in subsection (7) shall be accompanied by a return in which the presiding officer accounts for the number of ballot papers and voting machines entrusted to him or her under the heads of -

(a) ballot papers counted as contemplated in subsection 7(a), (c) and (d);

(b) unused ballot papers;

(c) spoilt ballot papers; and

(d) results of the poll counted as contemplated in subsection (7)(b).

(10) If, in the case of an election of members of the National Assembly or of members of a local authority council two or more political parties have received -

(a) after the counting of votes as contemplated in subsection (1)(e)(i) and (ii); or

(b) after a re-counting of votes as contemplated in subsection (5), an equal number of surplus votes and the result of the election cannot by virtue thereof be determined, -

(i) the Chairperson of the Commission, in the case of an election of members of the National Assembly, shall determine by lot the result of the election;

(ii) the returning officer, in the case of an election of members of a local authority council, shall determine by lot the result of the election.”.

Substitution of section 87 of Act No. 24 of 1992, as amended by section 40 of Act No. 23 of 1994 and section 3 of Act No. 19 of 1999

26. The following section is substituted for section 87 of the principal Act:
“Verification of ballot paper accounts by returning officer

87. (1) Upon receipt by him or her of the sealed ballot boxes, sealed voting machines and sealed packets referred to in section 85, from a presiding officer, the returning officer shall take charge of them and when all the ballot boxes, voting machines and packets have been received by him or her, he or she shall examine whether the seals of the ballot boxes, voting machines and packets are in order and afford any counting agents and, in the case of an election other than an election on party lists in terms of this Act, any candidates who are present an opportunity to do the same, and shall thereafter open all the packets.

(2) The returning officer [other than the returning officer for polling stations outside of Namibia,] shall -

(a) open all the ballot boxes and sealed packets relating to a particular polling station received from the presiding officer in terms of section 85 and remove there from the counted, unused and spoilt ordinary ballot papers, the counted results of the poll in the case of voting machines and the counted tendered vote ballot papers and counted ballot papers in the authorisation envelopes and verify the correctness of the return furnished by the presiding officer concerned in terms of subsection [(3)] (9) of that section;

(b) after such verification -

(i) prepare a report on the results thereof;

(ii) allow any counting agent or candidate to make copy of the report; and

(iii) cause the report to be delivered or transmitted to the Director.

[(c) open the packet referred to in section 80(2)(d), remove from the authorisation envelopes the ballot papers and mix them, still folded, with the other ordinary ballot papers;

(d) after ascertaining that each ordinary ballot paper bears the official mark on the back thereof the official mark referred to in section 82(2), count the votes recorded on such ballot papers -

(i) in the case of an election on party lists, for each political party; or

(ii) in the case of an election otherwise than on party lists, for each candidate; and

(e) once the counting of the ordinary ballot papers in terms of paragraph (d) has been completed -

(i) sort all the tendered vote envelopes according to the constituencies indicated thereon; and
ELECTORAL AMENDMENT ACT, 2009

(ii) remove the ballot papers from such envelopes and, in respect of each constituency, count the votes recorded on those ballot papers in the manner contemplated in paragraph (d).

(3) (a) The returning officer shall reject and not count any ballot paper -

(i) which records votes to more than one political party or candidate, as the case may be;

(ii) which does not bear the official stamp referred to in subsection (2) of section 82 and in respect of which he or she has reasonable grounds to believe that it has not been officially issued to a voter in terms of subsection (9) of that section;

(iii) which is unmarked or on which it is impossible to determine with certainty for which political party or candidate, as the case may be, the ballot is recorded;

(iv) which contains any writing or mark revealing the identity of the voter.

(b) The returning officer shall not reject but shall count any ballot paper on which there is any writing or mark, by means of which a voter has clearly indicated his or her choice otherwise than by a cross on the ballot paper in question, and whether or not such writing or mark is recorded in the space provided for the marking of such ballot paper.

(4) The returning officer shall in the presence of any counting agent or candidate referred to in subsection (1), and is in attendance, endorse the word “rejected” on any ballot paper rejected in terms of any provision of subsection (3).

(5) A counting agent or candidate referred to in subsection (1), may request a returning officer to re-count the ballot papers and votes counted at a polling station until such time as he or she is satisfied of its accuracy: Provided that a returning officer may refuse to do so if he or she is of the opinion that such request is at any time unreasonable.”.
