(b) who is an unrehabilitated insolvent;

(c) who in terms of this Act is disqualified from practising his or her profession, shall be elected as a member of the Board.

7. (1) A member of the Board shall vacate his or her office, if:

(a) such person becomes subject to any disqualification contemplated in section 6;

(b) he or she is declared mentally ill under the Mental Health Act, 1973 (Act 18 of 1973);

(c) he or she in writing under his or her hand, addressed and delivered to the Board, resigns from his or her office;

(d) he or she has been absent from more than two consecutive meetings of the Board without its leave; or

(e) he or she is convicted of an offence and sentenced to a term of imprisonment without the option of a fine.

(2) Any vacancy on the Board arising from any circumstance referred to in subsection (1) or caused by the death of any member of the Board, shall be filled by election mutatis mutandis in accordance with the provisions of section 5(2), and every member so elected shall hold office for the unexpired portion of the period of office of the vacating member.

8. (1) At the first meeting of every newly constituted Board the members of the Board shall elect from their number a president, vice-president and secretary.

(2) The president, vice-president and secretary shall hold office as such during their terms of office as members of the Board, unless he or she sooner resigns or ceases to be a member of the Board.

(3) If for any reason the president is absent or unable to act as president, the vice-president shall perform all the duties and functions and exercise all the powers of the president.
Meetings, quorums and procedures of Board.

9. (1) The meetings of the Board shall be held at such times and venues as the president of the Board may determine.

(2) (a) The president of the Board shall, upon the written request signed by at least four members of the Board or upon a written request signed by at least one-third of the persons registered in terms of this Act convene a special meeting of the Board to be held within 30 days after the date of receipt of such request, and on such date and at such place as he or she may determine.

(b) Such written request shall state clearly the purpose for which the meeting is to be convened.

(3) A majority of the members of the Board shall constitute a quorum for any meeting of the Board.
(4) The decision of the majority of the members of the Board present at any meeting of the Board shall constitute a decision of the Board, and in the event of an equality of votes, the person presiding at such meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to his or her deliberative vote.

(5) The Board may make rules in relation to the holding of, and procedures at, meetings of the Board.

(6) The Board and any committee of the Board referred to in section 10 shall cause proper records to be kept of the proceedings of its meetings.

(7) (a) Any meeting of the Board where the Board holds an inquiry under Part V or where any committee of the Board referred to in section 10 holds such an inquiry under powers assigned or delegated to it by the Board, shall be open to the public, unless the Board or such committee determines, subject to the provisions of the proviso to Article 12(1)(a) of the Namibian Constitution, otherwise.

(b) Any member or former member of the Board or any committee of the Board referred to in section 10, shall preserve and aid in preserving secrecy in relation to all matters that may come to his or her knowledge at or in respect of any meeting of the Board or such committee and shall not communicate any such matter to any other person or permit any other person to have access to any documents in his or her possession or custody related to such matter, except in so far as any such communication or document is required by, or may be made in terms of this Act or any other law, or is required by an order of a court of law.

(c) Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any determination referred to in paragraph (a) or with the provisions of paragraph (b) shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding R1 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

10. (1) The Board shall -

(a) establish a disciplinary committee which shall consist of such number of persons appointed by the Board as the Board may determine, but which shall include at least two members of the Board, one of whom shall be the chairperson and the other the vice-chairperson of such committee, to investigate and report to the Board on any complaint, charge or allegation referred to in section 29;

(b) establish an education committee which shall consist of such number of persons appointed by the Board as the Board may determine, but which shall include at least two members of the Board, one of whom shall be the chairperson and the other the vice-chairperson of such committee and at least two social workers who have knowledge or experience in or are or were involved in the training of persons for the profession of social work, to investigate and report to the Board on any matter relating to any requirement or qualification for registration or training, as the case may be;

(c) establish an Executive Committee which shall consist of such number of the members of the board as the board may determine, to exercise such of the board's powers and perform such of the board's duties and functions as the board may from time to time confer upon and assign to it.

(2) A committee established in terms of subsection (1) shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (5), exercise such of the Board's powers and perform such of the Board's functions as the Board may from time to time confer upon or assign to it.

(3) The Board may from time to time establish such other committees as it may deem necessary, each consisting of so many persons, appointed by the Board, as the Board may determine, but including at least one member of the Board who shall be the chairperson of such committee, to investigate and report to the Board on any matter falling within the scope of the Board's functions under this Act.

(4) The Board may delegate to any committee established in terms of subsection (3) such of its powers, in addition to the powers conferred upon such committee under that subsection, as it may from time to time determine, but shall not be divested of any power so delegated.
(5) No penalty imposed by any committee established in terms of subsection (1) other than a caution or a reprimand or a reprimand and a caution, shall be of force and effect until confirmed by the Board: Provided that an order made by any such committee under section 38(2) shall, if the committee so directs in the public interest, come into operation forthwith, but shall lapse after the expiration of a period of six months unless confirmed within that period by the Board.

11. (1) The funds of the Board shall consist of the registration and examination fees and any other fees payable under this Act and such other moneys, including assistance referred to in subsection (2) as may in terms of this Act from time to time become payable to the Board, and the Board shall utilize its funds for defraying expenses incurred in connection with the performance of its functions.

(2) The Minister may, in consultation with the Minister of Finance, at any time, and subject to such conditions as the Minister may determine, grant to the Board out of moneys appropriated by law such financial assistance as he or she may deem necessary in connection with the performance of its functions.

(3) The Board may invest any unexpended portion of its funds and may establish such reserve funds and pay therein such amounts as it may deem necessary or expedient.

(4) (a) The Board shall cause full and correct accounts to be kept of all moneys received or expended by it.

(b) The Board shall cause to be prepared in each year a statement of its income and expenditure during its last preceding financial year and a balance sheet showing its financial position at the end of that financial year and shall, after the statement and balance sheet have been audited by an auditor appointed by the Board, cause copies thereof to be transmitted to every member of the Board, and cause a copy thereof to be open for inspection at the office, if any, of the Board and the office of the Council by any person registered with the Board.
(c) The Board shall in each year, within six months after the close of its financial year, submit to the Council a report in regard to its activities during that financial year, together with a copy of the audited statement of income and expenditure and the balance sheet referred to in paragraph (b) in respect of that financial year.

(d) The financial year of the Board shall end on 30 June of each year, unless the Board, with the approval of the Minister, determines otherwise.

PART III

TRAINING, QUALIFICATIONS AND REGISTRATION

12. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any law contained, no person or educational institution may offer or provide any tuition or training which is intended to qualify any person to practise the profession of social work to which the provisions of this Act apply, unless such tuition and training have been approved by the Board.

(2) Any person or educational institution intending to offer or to provide the tuition or training referred to in subsection (1) shall, before offering or providing such tuition or training, apply in such form as may be determined by the Minister to the Board in writing for its approval of such tuition or training and shall furnish such particulars regarding that tuition or training as the Board may require.

(3) (a) The Board may grant or refuse any application made in terms of subsection (2) and may, where it approves an application, issue a certificate of approval to the person or educational institution concerned in such form and subject to such conditions and for such period as it may determine.

(b) The Board may at any time withdraw any certificate of approval issued under paragraph (a) if it is satisfied that any person or educational institution issued with such certificate has failed to comply with any condition or requirement determined in terms of that paragraph.
(4) The Board shall notify in writing the person or educational institution concerned of any decision taken under subsection (3).

(5) Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of subsection (1) or any condition determined under subsection (3), shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction be liable -

(a) in the case of a natural person, to a fine not exceeding R12 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three years or to both such fine and such imprisonment; or

(b) in any other case, to a fine not exceeding R50 000.

13. Unless otherwise provided in this Act, no person shall be entitled to practise within Namibia the profession of social work unless such person is registered in terms of this Act with the Board as a social worker, student social worker or social auxiliary worker, as the case may be.

14. (1) Every person who desires to be registered as a social worker in terms of this Act shall, in such form as may be determined by the Minister, apply to the Board, and shall together with such application submit to the Board the qualification which in such person's opinion entitles him or her to registration with the Board, together with such documents or information as may be required by the Board.

(2) If the Board is satisfied that the applicant and his or her qualifications comply with the provisions of this Act and with the requirements of the Board, it shall, upon payment of all prescribed fees, register the applicant and issue a registration certificate in the prescribed form in the name of such applicant, authorizing the applicant, subject to the provisions of this Act and to any other law, to practise as a social worker within Namibia.

(3) If the Board is not satisfied that the qualification or other documents submitted in support of such application comply with the provisions of this Act and with its requirements, the Board shall refuse to issue a registration certificate to the applicant.
15. (1) The Board may, on application made in the prescribed manner, register as a student social worker any person who studies the subject of social work at an educational institution and who satisfies the prescribed conditions.

(2) The Board shall issue to any person registered under subsection (1) a certificate of registration in the prescribed form and subject to the prescribed conditions.

16. (1) The Board may, on application made in the prescribed manner, register as a social auxiliary worker any person who holds any qualification referred to in subsection (2) and who complies with the prescribed conditions.

(2) The Board may determine the qualifications which shall entitle the holder thereof to registration as a social auxiliary worker.

(3) The Board shall issue to any person registered under subsection (1) a certificate of registration in the prescribed form and subject to the prescribed conditions.

(4) Different qualifications and conditions may be prescribed in respect of different categories of social auxiliary workers.

17. (1) The secretary of the Board shall -

(a) keep separate registers in respect of social workers, student social workers and social auxiliary workers registered in terms of this Act and shall record in the appropriate register the name, address, qualifications or such other particulars as may be determined by the Board of every person whose application for registration in terms of this Act has been granted; and

(b) furnish the register of the Council with a copy of the registration certificate of every person who has been registered in terms of this Act and such other particulars (if any) as may be required by such registrar in connection with such person.
SOCIAL AND SOCIAL AUXILIARY WORKERS' PROFESSIONS ACT, 1993

(2) The secretary of the Board shall keep the registers in accordance with the provisions of this Act and shall, subject to any other provisions of this Act, remove therefrom the name of all registered persons who have died or whose period of registration has expired in terms of this Act, and shall from time to time make the necessary alterations in the names and addresses or qualifications of registered persons.

(3) Every registered person who changes his or her address shall in writing and within 30 days after such change notify the secretary of the Board of his or her new address.

(4) The Permanent Secretary: Home Affairs shall, on receipt of the death registration of a person which indicates that such person immediately prior to his or her death practised a profession which is required to be registered under this Act, forthwith notify the Board of such death.

(5) No qualification shall be entered in the register if the Board is satisfied that the person claiming to possess such qualification is not entitled thereto.

18. (1) The Board may direct its secretary to remove from the register the name of any person -

(a) who has been, without notifying the Board, absent from Namibia during the three years immediately preceding such removal;

(b) who has failed to notify the secretary in terms of section 17(3) of any change of his or her address and who, within a period of three months after a request by the secretary send by registered letter to the address of such person appearing in such register to furnish such new address, fails to comply with such request;

(c) who has requested that his or her name be removed from the register, in which case such person may be required by the secretary to lodge with the Board an affidavit or affirmation to the effect that no disciplinary or criminal proceedings are being or are likely to be taken against him or her;
(d) who has failed to pay the Board, within a period of one month as from the date upon which it becomes due for payment, the prescribed annual fees;

(e) whose name has been removed from the register, record or roll of any educational institution from which that person received the qualifications by virtue of the holding whereof such person was registered in terms of this Act;

(f) in respect of whom an entry has been made in error or through misrepresentation or in circumstances not authorized by this Act and the initial registration would not have been made, had the correct facts and circumstances been known to the Board.

(2) (a) Notice of the removal in terms of subsection (1) of any person's name or of an entry from the register shall be served by the secretary of the Board or any person designated by the secretary for that purpose, on the person whose name is to be removed from the register, at his or her place of business.

(b) In the event that a notice referred to in paragraph (a) cannot be served on the person whose name is to be removed from the register concerned at his or her place of business or residence, such notice may be served -

(i) at the place of business of such person, upon any partner or employee of such person; or

(ii) at the place of residence of such person, upon any member of the household or any employee of such person apparently above the age of 16 years; or

(iii) by way of registered letter addressed to such person at his or her address which appears in such register, and, in the case of subparagraph (i) or (ii), any partner, member or employee upon whom the notice is served shall acknowledge receipt thereof in writing and shall state his or her capacity and, where practicable, his or her age.

(3) As from the date on which a notice referred to in subsection (2) has been served -

(a) any registration certificate issued in terms of this Act to the person concerned shall be deemed to be cancelled; and

(b) such person shall cease to practise the profession in respect of which he or she was registered or to perform any act which such person, in his or her capacity as a registered person, was entitled to perform, until such time as the name of such person is restored to the register.

(4) If any person registered in terms of this Act has been declared a mentally ill person under the Mental Health Act, 1973 (Act 18 of 1973), the Registrar of the High Court shall forward a copy of the order declaring such person a mentally ill person to the secretary of the Board who shall, on receipt of such copy, remove the name of such person from the register concerned.

(5) The name of a person who, or an entry which, has in terms of this section been removed from a register, may be restored to the register by the Board if the person concerned -

(a) applies to the secretary of the Board in the form as may be determined by the Minister for such restoration;

(b) pays any fee prescribed in respect of such restoration;
(c) where his or her name has been removed from the register in terms of subsection (4), submits proof to the satisfaction of the Board of his or her discharge in terms of the provisions of the Mental Health Act, 1973 (Act 18 of 1973), from the institution at which he or she was detained; and

(d) complies with such other requirements as the Board may determine.

(6) The provisions of section 14, 15 or 16, as the case may be, shall mutatis mutandis apply to an application in terms of subsection (5) as well as any further and other conditions which the Board may impose.

19. (1) A copy of any register signed by the secretary of the Board shall be prima facie proof in all legal proceedings of the facts therein recorded, and the absence of the name of any person from such copy shall be proof until the contrary is proved, that such person is not registered under the provisions of this Act: Provided that in the case of any person whose name -

(a) does not appear in such copy but ought to appear in such register, a certified statement by the secretary shall be proof that such person is registered under the provisions of this Act;

(b) has been removed from the register and has not been restored to the register, a certified statement by the secretary that the name of such person has been removed from the register shall be proof that such person is not registered under the provisions of this Act.

20. (1) Upon receipt of an application by a registered person and upon payment of the prescribed fee, the secretary of the Board may issue to such person a duplicate registration certificate or furnish such person with an extract from the register concerned.

(2) A receipt in respect of the payment of annual fees issued to any person by the Board shall be prima facie proof in any legal proceedings that such person is registered under the provisions of this Act.
Qualifications prescribed for registration.

21. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), the Minister may from time to time, upon the recommendation of the Board, prescribe the qualifications obtained by virtue of examinations conducted by any educational institution or other examining authority, which, when held singly or conjointly with any other qualification, shall entitle any holder thereof to registration under this Act in the profession of social work, if he or she has, before or in connection with or after the acquisition of the qualification in question, complied with such conditions or requirements as may be so prescribed.

(2) No qualification obtained by virtue of examinations conducted by an educational institution or other examining authority situated outside Namibia shall be prescribed under this section unless -

(a) such qualification entitles the holder thereof to practise the profession of social work in the country or state in which such educational institution or other examining authority is situated; and

(b) the Board is satisfied that possession of such qualification is of a standard of professional education not lower than that prescribed in terms of subsection (1) in respect of the profession of social work, within Namibia.

Conditional registration.

22. (1) Any person not in possession of a qualification prescribed in terms of section 21 and who lodges an application for registration with the Board, may be registered by the Board, if -

(a) such applicant possesses any qualification which the Board is satisfied as indicating a standard of professional education not lower than that prescribed in terms of the said section 21;

(b) such applicant has received such additional tuition or training, whether within or outside Namibia, as may be prescribed upon the recommendation of the Board;

(c) such applicant has passed the additional examinations, whether within or outside Namibia, as may be prescribed upon the recommendation of the Board.
(2) For the purposes of the provisions of paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection (1), the Board may register such applicant conditionally for such period or periods as the Board may determine and on such conditions subject to which such applicant may practise the profession of social work as may be so determined until such time as such applicant has completed the additional tuition or training referred to in the said paragraph (b) or until such time as such applicant has passed the additional examinations referred to in the said paragraph (c).

(3) The Board may, before issuing a conditional registration certificate in terms of subsection (2), require the applicant concerned, at such date and venue as may be determined by the Board, to be examined by examiners appointed by the Board, to ascertain whether such applicant -

(a) possesses professional knowledge and skill which is of a standard not lower than that required in respect of the profession of social work; and

(b) is proficient in the official language of Namibia.

(4) The Minister may, from time to time and upon the recommendation of the Board, prescribe the examinations to be conducted in terms of subsection (3) and the examination fees payable to the Board by such applicant.

(5) As soon as an applicant has complied with the provisions of subsection (1)(b) and upon expiry of any period determined by the Board in terms of subsection (2), any person in possession of a conditional registration certificate may apply to the Board to sit for the additional examinations prescribed in terms of subsection (1)(c).

(6) Any person who possesses a qualification referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) may, upon application, be exempted by the Minister from any restriction or condition imposed in respect of him or her under the provisions of this section.

23. Any person to whom a conditional registration certificate has been issued in terms of section 21 may, as soon as such person has complied with the provisions of that section and the conditions determined thereunder by the Board, apply to the Board for registration mutatis mutandis in accordance with the provisions of section 14.
24. (1) Every educational institution at which a qualification can be obtained entitling the holder thereof to registration with the Board, shall furnish the Board upon its request with full particulars as to -

(a) the minimum age and standard of general education required of students for admission to the relevant course or field of study;

(b) the courses of study, training and examinations required of a student before such qualification is granted;

(c) particulars of examinations conducted and the results thereof in respect of a specific student or a specific category of students;

(d) such other particulars relating to any of the matters referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) as the Board may from time to time require.

(2) If any educational institution referred to in subsection (1) fails or refuses to furnish the particulars requested by the Board under that subsection or if it appears to the Board that any provision of this Act applicable to such educational institution is not being properly complied with and that such improper compliance is having or may have an adverse effect on the standard of the education in respect of the professional training to be maintained at such educational institution, the Minister may upon the recommendation of the Board by notice in the Gazette declare that any qualification specified in such notice and granted by such educational institution after a date specified in such notice shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (4), not entitle any holder thereof to registration under this Act.

(3) Upon the recommendation of the Board the Minister may, when it appears to him or her that satisfactory provision has been made for complying with the requirements of this Act by any educational institution in respect of any qualification which is the subject of a notice issued under subsection (2), repeal or amend any notice published in terms of that subsection.
(4) Upon the recommendation of the Board, the Minister shall, in the notice published in terms of subsection (3), determine whether or not any qualification granted subsequent to the date specified in the notice published in terms of subsection (2) and granted by the educational institution referred to in that notice, entitles the holder of such qualification to registration in terms of this Act.

(5) The Board may from time to time appoint a person to investigate whether the minimum requirements laid down by the Board are being complied with by an educational institution and to report to the Board thereon.

25. (1) The Minister may from time to time prescribe the degrees, diplomas or certificates which may be registered as additional qualifications or qualifications which may be registered as specialities.

(2) Every person who desires to have a prescribed degree, diploma or certificate registered other than the qualification by virtue of which such person has in the first instance been registered, or to have a prescribed speciality registered, shall in the form determined by the Minister apply to the Board, submitting such documentary proof that he or she holds the additional qualification in question as the Board may require, or, in the case of an application for registration of a speciality, submitting proof that he or she complies with the prescribed requirements, and if the Board is satisfied that such additional qualification is a degree, diploma or certificate prescribed in terms of subsection (1), or, in respect of a speciality, that such speciality has been prescribed in terms of that subsection and that the prescribed requirements have been complied with, it shall, upon payment of the prescribed fee, cause such degree, diploma or certificate, or speciality, as the case may be, to be entered in the register against the name of the applicant.

(3) If a person wishes to register a qualification or speciality not prescribed in terms of this Act, the Board may, before entering such qualification or speciality into the register, require of such applicant to pass an examination prescribed by the Minister upon the recommendation of the Board in order to determine whether the applicant's professional knowledge and skill in the field of his or her qualification or speciality are of such a standard so as to enable such person to practise the profession or speciality concerned.

(4) The Board may remove from the register any qualification or speciality registered in terms of this section, if -

(a) in respect of such qualification the name of the holder thereof has been removed from the roll, register or records of the educational institution at or from which the applicant obtained or acquired such qualification;

(b) the Board is satisfied that such qualification or speciality does not comply with the requirements as prescribed;

(c) the person in respect of whom a qualification or speciality is registered, requests in writing the Board to remove such application or speciality from the register.

(5) A qualification or speciality removed from the register in terms of subsection (4) shall be restored to the register by the secretary of the Board upon such person -

(a) applying for such restoration in the form and manner determined by the Minister;

(b) paying the fees prescribed in respect of such restoration; and

(c) complying with such other requirements (if any) as the Board may determine.

(6) No person shall take up, use or publish in any manner whatsoever any name, title, description or symbol indicating or calculated to lead persons to infer that he or she possesses an additional qualification contemplated in subsection (1), if such qualification has not been registered in terms of this section in respect of such person.
(7) No person registered under this Act shall practise as a specialist or shall hold himself or herself out as such a specialist, or shall in any other manner profess to be a person in respect of whom a speciality has been registered, unless the speciality in question has been registered in terms of this section in respect of such person.

26. No person who is not registered may use the title "social worker", "student social worker" or "social auxiliary worker", as the case may be.

PART IV

OFFENCES BY UNREGISTERED PERSONS

27. (1) Subject to the provision of subsection (4), any person who -

(a) for gain, directly or indirectly, in any manner whatsoever practise the profession of social or social auxiliary work, unless he or she has been registered under this Act as a social or social auxiliary worker or is deemed to have been so registered;

(b) give instruction on any aspect of the subject social work at a training institution, unless he or she has been registered under this Act as a social worker, or is a person who is resident in Namibia and who, with the approval of the Board, gives instruction in an aspect of the subject social work determined by the Board at a training institution in Namibia determined by the Board;

(c) while he or she is not registered under this Act -

(i) makes use of a title which only a person who is so registered may use, whether he or she makes use of such title alone or in combination with any word or letter; or

(ii) in any manner pretends or holds himself or herself out or permits himself or herself to be held out, directly or indirectly, as being so registered, shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding R12 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

(2) A person who, knowing that another person is not registered under this Act -

(a) describes such person as the holder of a title which only a person who is so registered may use, whether he or she describes such other person by making use of such title alone or in combination with any word or letter; or

(b) holds such other person out, directly or indirectly, as being so registered,

shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding R4 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

(3) In so far as any person undergoes practical training in social work as a requirement for the acquisition of a prescribed qualification at a training institution, he or she shall be deemed not to practise the profession of social work, provided he or she has been registered in terms of this Act as a student social worker and such practical training takes places under the supervision of a social worker.

(4) The provisions of subsection (1) shall not apply -

(a) to any person who has satisfied all the requirements for the prescribed qualifications and whose application for registration as a social worker, student social worker or social auxiliary worker under this Act is under consideration by the Board;

(b) to any person other than a social worker who is permitted or authorized in terms of the provisions of any other law to perform or apply any act which specially pertains to the profession of social work, as the holder of an office or in the ordinary course of the practice of a profession referred to in such law;
(c) to any person belonging to a category of persons designated by the Board for the purposes of this subsection by notice in the Gazette.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (1) a person shall be deemed to practise the profession of social work for gain if he or she receives any reward for the performance of any act which specially pertains to the profession of social work.

DISCIPLINARY POWERS OF BOARD

28. (1) The Board shall from time to time issue rules specifying the acts or omissions by registered persons which constitute improper conduct or misconduct and in respect of which the Board may conduct inquiries and may take disciplinary steps in terms of the provisions of this Part.

(2) No rules issued in terms of subsection (1) or any amendment or withdrawal thereof shall be of force and effect until approved by the Minister and published in the Gazette.

(3) The provisions of this section shall not prohibit the Board from conducting an inquiry into any conduct or behaviour of any registered person concerned, whether or not such conduct or behaviour is an act or omission referred to in subsection (1).

29. (1) The Board shall have power to inquire -

(a) into any complaint or charge; or

(b) whether or not a complaint or charge has been lodged, into any allegation of improper conduct or misconduct against any person registered under this Act and, on finding such person guilty of such conduct, may impose any of the penalties prescribed in section 32(1): Provided that in the case of a complaint, charge or allegation which forms or is likely to form the subject of a criminal
30. (1) Any inquiry in terms of section 29 shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be conducted in accordance with the prescribed procedures.

(2) The proceedings at such inquiry shall, in so far as is practicable, be minuted verbatim and the minutes of such inquiry shall be certified by the members of the Board present at such meeting as being a true and accurate account of the evidence given at such inquiry, the exhibits presented and of the decisions of the Board.

(3) The minutes of an inquiry referred to in subsection (2) shall for a period of at least five years be kept in safe-custody by the secretary of the Board and shall for the purpose of an appeal in terms of section 49 be prima facie proof of the proceedings at such inquiry and the decisions taken by the Board as a result of such inquiry.

(4) Any person in respect of whom an inquiry in terms of section 29 is to be held shall be notified in writing of such inquiry at least 21 days before the date of commencement of such inquiry by the delivery to such person of a notice in the prescribed form informing such person of the intended inquiry and obtaining from such person an acknowledgement of receipt stating the date, place and time of the service of such notice.
(5) Service of a notice in terms of subsection (4) shall be performed by the secretary of the Board or by a person designated for such purpose by him or her.

(6) In the event of the secretary of the Board or the person designated in terms of subsection (5) certifying that -

(a) the person upon whom the notice is to be served cannot be traced;

(b) such person refuses to accept such notice; or

(c) such person refuses to sign the required acknowledgement of receipt,

the secretary may send such notice by registered letter to such person to his or her address as it appears in the register of the Board: Provided that such notice shall be so sent not less than 14 days prior to the date of the intended inquiry.

(7) In the event of a person served with a notice in terms of subsection (4) or to whom a notice has been sent in terms of subsection (6) not being present at the commencement of an inquiry, the president of the Board may at his or her discretion have such inquiry conducted in the absence of such person.

(8) (a) For the purpose of an inquiry in terms of section 29 the Board may summon witnesses to appear at a specified date, place and time to give evidence before such Board and to submit to such Board any document, book, record or other thing relevant to the inquiry.

(b) A summons to appear before the Board or a committee thereof as a witness or to produce to it any book, record, document or thing referred to in paragraph (a), shall be, as nearly as practicable, in the prescribed form and signed by the president or the secretary of the Board, and shall be served either by registered letter or in the same manner as it would have been served if it were a subpoena issued by a magistrate's court.

(c) Any person who, having been duly summoned -
SOCIAL AND SOCIAL AUXILIARY WORKERS’ PROFESSIONS ACT, 1993

(i) refuses or without sufficient cause fails to attend and give evidence relevant to the inquiry at the time and place specified in the summons; or

(ii) refuses to take the prescribed oath or to make an affirmation when required by the person presiding at such inquiry to do so; or

(iii) leaves the inquiry in question without the consent of the person presiding at such inquiry, whether or not such person has given evidence; or

(iv) refuses to give evidence before the Board or refuses to answer fully and satisfactorily to the best of his or her knowledge and belief any question lawfully put to him or her, or refuses to produce any book, record, document or thing which such person has in terms of the summons been required to produce,

shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding R2 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

(9) Every person summoned in terms of subsection (8) shall be entitled to all the privileges to which a witness subpoenaed to give evidence before the High Court is entitled.

(10) Every person whose conduct is the subject of an inquiry under section 29 shall, if such person is present at such inquiry, have the right, by himself or herself or through a legal representative, to answer any complaint, charge or allegation against him or her and to be heard in his or her defence, and for such purpose -

(a) to give evidence under oath or affirmation;

(b) to call witnesses to testify on his or her behalf;

(c) to submit any document, book, record or any other thing relevant to the inquiry;

(d) to examine witnesses testifying against him or her.
(11) The president of the Board, where the Board itself holds an inquiry in terms of section 29, or the chairperson of a committee of the Board, where such committee holds an inquiry under powers assigned or delegated to it by the Board, may appoint a person with adequate experience in the administration of justice as an assessor at such an inquiry to advise the Board or such committee, as the case may be, on matters of law, procedure or evidence.

(12) For the purpose of the computation of any period referred to in subsections (4) and (6), no Saturday, Sunday or public holiday shall be regarded as a day referred to in those subsections.

31. Any person who gives false evidence on oath or affirmation at an inquiry held under this Part, knowing such evidence to be false, shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction be liable to the penalties prescribed by law for the crime of perjury.

32. (1) Every person registered under this Act who, after an inquiry held by the Board, is found guilty of improper conduct or misconduct, shall be liable to any one or more of the following penalties, namely -

(a) a caution or a reprimand or a reprimand and a caution; or

(b) suspension for a specified period from practising or performing acts specially pertaining to the profession of such person; or

(c) removal of the name of such person from the register concerned, and the Board may in lieu of or in addition to any such penalty impose a fine not exceeding R2 000: Provided that, before imposition of any penalty such person shall, by himself or herself or through his or her legal representative, be afforded an opportunity of tendering an explanation to the Board in extenuation of the conduct in question.

(2) Any fine imposed under subsection (1) may be recovered and shall be dealt with in the manner prescribed.
Act No. 22, 1993

SOCIAL AND SOCIAL AUXILIARY WORKERS' PROFESSIONS ACT, 1993

(3) The Board shall set out fully and in writing its findings and the penalty imposed (if any), and shall make such findings and penalty known to any other prescribed bodies or persons.

(4) A person who has been found guilty of improper conduct or misconduct shall, whether or not such person was present at the inquiry in question -

(a) in the case of a penalty imposed under subsection (1)(a), be informed of the findings of the Board and the penalty concerned by the forwarding of a copy of such findings and penalty duly signed by the person presiding at the inquiry, by registered letter to such person at his or her address as it appears in the register of the Board;

(b) in the case of a penalty imposed under subsection (1)(b) or (c), be informed of the findings of the Board and the penalty concerned by the serving mutatis mutandis in accordance with the provisions of section 18(2), of a copy of such findings and penalty duly signed by the person who presided at the inquiry.

(5) When a person has been found not guilty of improper conduct or misconduct, the secretary of the Board shall by registered letter to such person at his or her address as it appears in the register concerned inform such person of the findings of the Board.

(6) The Board may, if it deems fit and subject to such conditions (if any) as it may determine -

(a) terminate any suspension under subsection (1) before the expiry of the specified period;

(b) on payment of the prescribed fee, restore to the register any name which has been removed therefrom.
33. (1) Where the Board finds a person guilty of improper conduct or misconduct, it may -

(a) postpone for such period and on such conditions as may be determined by it, the imposition of the penalty; or

(b) impose any penalty mentioned in paragraph (b) or (c) of subsection (1) of section 32, but order the execution of such penalty to be suspended for such period and on such conditions as may be determined by it.

(2) (a) If at the end of the period for which the imposition of a penalty has been postponed in terms of subsection (1)(a), the Board is satisfied that the person concerned has observed all the relevant conditions, the Board shall inform such person that no penalty will be imposed upon him or her.

(b) If the execution of a penalty has been suspended in terms of subsection (1)(b) and -

(i) the Board is satisfied that the person concerned has observed all the relevant conditions throughout the period of suspension, the Board shall inform such person that such penalty will not be executed; or

(ii) the person concerned fails to observe any of the conditions of suspension, the Board shall put such penalty into operation unless such person satisfies the Board that the non-observance of the condition concerned was due to circumstances beyond his or her control.

34. Any person who has been suspended or whose name has been removed from the register in terms of section 32 shall be disqualified from carrying on his or her profession, and his or her registration certificate shall be deemed to be cancelled until the period of suspension has expired or until his or her name has been restored to the register by the Board.
35. (1) Any registered person who, either before or after registration, has been convicted of any offence by a court of law, may be dealt with by the Board in terms of the provisions of this Part if the Board is of the opinion that such offence constitutes improper conduct or misconduct and such person shall be liable on proof of such conviction, to one or more of the penalties referred to in section 32: Provided that, before imposition of any penalty, such person shall, by himself or herself or through his or her legal representative, be afforded an opportunity of tendering an explanation to the Board in extenuation of the conduct in question.

(2) Whenever in the course of any proceedings before any court of law it appears to the court that there is prima facie proof of improper conduct or misconduct on the part of a registered person, the court shall direct that a copy of the record of such proceedings or such portion thereof as is material to such conduct, be transmitted to the Board.

36. (1) If the Board exercises the powers conferred upon it by section 29, it shall appoint any person as pro forma complainant to present the case to the Board: Provided that the secretary for the time being or any member of the Board shall not be so appointed.

(2) The Board may, subject to the provisions of the proviso to subsection (1), appoint any person to institute proceedings or to continue proceedings if the person appointed under that subsection is for any reason unable to do so.

37. The Board or any committee thereof or any member of the Board or committee shall not be liable in respect of anything done or omitted in good faith and not attributable to negligence in the exercise of a power or the carrying out of a duty or the performance of a function under or by virtue of the provisions of this Part or in respect of anything that may result therefrom.

38. (1) Whenever it appears to the Board that a person registered under this Act has become mentally or physically disabled to an extent that it would be contrary to the public interest to allow such person to continue to practise, the Board shall cause the matter to be investigated and may, if it deems it necessary, conduct an inquiry mutatis mutandis in accordance with the provisions of this Part in respect of such person.

(2) If the Board, after having conducted an inquiry referred to in subsection (1), finds that any of the circumstances contemplated in that subsection exist in respect of such person, the Board may, by order -

(a) suspend such person, for such period and subject to such conditions as the Board may determine, from practising his or her profession or performing any act specially pertaining to his or her profesison; or

(b) impose such conditions as it may deem fit, subject to which such person shall be entitled to continue practising his or her profession.

(3) The Board may at any time withdraw or extend the period of, or amend any order made by it under subsection (2).

(4) The provisions of section 33 shall apply mutatis mutandis in respect of any person who has been suspended in terms of any provision of subsection (2).

(5) Any person registered under this Act who contravenes or fails to comply with any order made under subsection (2) shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding R12 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

PART VI

GENERAL AND SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

39. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act or in any other law contained, but subject to the provisions of this section, the Minister may, on application of any person who is not registered under this Act as a social worker, student social worker or social auxiliary worker, but who -
(a) in terms of the laws of any other country or state approved by the Minister for that purpose, is entitled to practice as a social worker or a social auxiliary worker without further examination or training in that country or state;

(b) although he or she is not entitled to practice as contemplated in paragraph (a), at any educational institution situated outside Namibia, obtained a qualification or received education in the profession of social work, which in the opinion of the Minister indicates a satisfactory standard of professional education, and complies with such further conditions or requirements as the Minister may determine, grant a written authority to such person to practise, as the case may be, the profession of a social worker, student social worker or social auxiliary worker.

(2) Any person to whom a written authority has been granted under subsection (1) -

(a) shall be entitled to practise the profession of a social worker or to practise as a student social worker or a social auxiliary worker, as the case may be -

(i) only in the employment of the State;

(ii) for the period; and

(iii) subject to -

(aa) such restrictions in respect of his or her professional activities; and

(bb) such further conditions, including the condition that he or she may only practise as such subject to such supervision, as may be determined by the Minister and specified in such written authority;

(b) shall, subject to any restriction or condition imposed in respect of him or her under the provisions of paragraph (a), be competent and entitled to perform any act falling within the scope of the profession of a person who is registered under this Act as a social worker, student social worker or social auxiliary worker, as the case may be, and which he or she could have performed if he or she had been registered as such under this Act.

(3) The Minister may, at his or her discretion -

(a) at any time amend or revoke any restriction or condition imposed under subsection (2);

(b) at any time impose such further and additional restrictions and conditions as he or she may determine;

(c) extend from time to time the period for which such authority has been granted;

(d) at any time suspend, for such period and subject to such conditions as he or she may determine, any written authority granted under subsection (1); or

(e) at any time withdraw any such authority.

(4) Any person who desires to obtain a written authority under the provisions of subsection (1), shall apply therefore in such form and such manner as may be determined by the Minister, and such application shall be accompanied by -

(a) the qualification or qualifications on account of which the applicant so applies;

(b) such proof of the applicant's identity and good character and of the fact that he or she is entitled to practise the profession of a social worker or to practise as a student social worker or a social auxiliary worker and of any qualification or qualifications which may be required by the Minister, including the authenticity and validity thereof as may be so required;
(c) such application fees as may be determined by the Minister; and

(d) any further documents or information as may be required by the Minister.

(5) No application referred to in subsection (1) shall be granted unless the Board has been consulted by the Minister in regard thereto.

(6) Before granting an application referred to in subsection (1), the Minister may require of the applicant concerned to sit for any examination before an examiner or examiners appointed by the Minister for the purpose of ascertaining whether the applicant, to the satisfaction of the Minister, possesses sufficient professional knowledge and skill to practise the profession of a social worker or to practise as a student social worker or a social auxiliary worker, as the case may be.

(7) (a) The provisions of Part IV and of section 44 shall mutatis mutandis apply to or in relation to any person authorized under this section to practise the profession of a social worker or to practise as a student social worker or a social auxiliary worker, as the case may be, as if such person were registered under this Act as such.

(b) Any reference in those provisions to a social worker, student social worker or social auxiliary worker shall be construed as including a reference to any person authorized under this section to practise as such, but subject to any condition or restriction imposed by or under this section.

(8) For the purposes of the provisions of any other law, any reference to a social worker, student social worker or social auxiliary worker shall be construed as including a reference to a person authorized under this section to practise as such, but subject to any condition or restriction imposed by or under this section.

40. (1) The Board may, after consultation with the Council and with the approval of the Minister, determine a tariff of fees which may be charged for professional services rendered by persons registered under this Act.
(2) The Board may from time to time, in a like manner, repeal or amend such tariff of fees.

(3) The tariff of fees referred to in subsection (1) and any repeal or amendment thereof in terms of subsection (2) shall have no force and effect unless published by the secretary of the Board in the Gazette.

41. (1) Every person registered under this Act (in this section referred to as the practitioner) shall, unless the circumstances render it impossible for him or her to do so, before rendering any professional services, inform the person to whom the services are to be rendered or any person responsible for the maintenance of such person, of the fee which he or she intends to charge for such services -

(a) when so requested by the person concerned; or

(b) when such fee exceeds that determined under section 40 or, if no such fee is so determined, that usually charged for such services, and shall in a case to which paragraph (b) relates, also inform the person concerned of the fee so determined or the usual fee, as the case may be.

(2) Any practitioner who in respect of any professional services rendered by him or her claims payment from any person (in this section referred to as the client) shall furnish the said person with a detailed account within the prescribed period.

(3) A client may, whether or not he or she has settled an account referred to in subsection (2), in writing and within the prescribed period request the Board to determine the amount which in the opinion of the Board should have been charged in respect of the services to which the account relates and such patient shall at the same time by registered letter inform the practitioner concerned of such request.

(4) On receipt of a request referred to in subsection (3), the Board shall request the practitioner concerned to submit to it in writing and within the prescribed period any representations in support of the amount charged in the account rendered by such practitioner.
(5) The Board shall within one month after receipt of the practitioner’s representations referred to in subsection (4), or if no such representations have been submitted within the period referred to in that subsection, within one month after the expiration of that period, determine the amount payable by the client to the practitioner and shall in writing inform such practitioner and such client of the amount so determined.

(6) The determination of the amount payable in terms of this section by the client to the practitioner shall be binding upon both the practitioner and the client.

(7) Until such time as the Board has in terms of subsection (5) made a determination in respect of any account referred to it in terms of subsection (3), no practitioner shall institute legal proceedings in any court of law against a client for recovery of any amount owing in respect of such account.

(8) The provisions of subsection (7) shall not be construed so as to prohibit a practitioner from instituting proceedings for the recovery of any amount owing and which has not in terms of subsection (3) been referred to the Board or in respect whereof the Board has already made a determination in terms of subsection (5), irrespective of whether such client has in terms of subsection (3) referred any other account or any other or further part of such practitioner’s account to the Board.

(9) If a client has settled an account referred to in subsection (3) before the Board has determined that the amount payable by the client concerned is actually less than the amount which such client has paid, the practitioner concerned shall, after such determination -

(a) credit the account of such client with the deficiency between the amount actually paid and the amount which the Board has so determined; or

(b) at the request of such client, refund to him or her the amount of the deficiency referred to in paragraph (a).

(10) This section shall be deemed not to divest the Board of any of its powers or functions under Part V with regard to acts or omissions in respect of which it may take disciplinary steps.
42. (1) Any person who -

(a) procures or attempts to procure for himself or herself or any other person registration under this Act, or any diploma, certificate, receipt or order referred to in this Act, by means of false representation, whether verbally or in writing, or aids and abets any person in so doing; or

(b) makes or causes to be made any unauthorized entry or alteration in or removal from a register or certified copy thereof or extract therefrom or on any diploma, certificate or receipt issued under this Act; or

(c) except upon the direction of the Council or the Board, wilfully destroys or damages or renders illegible or causes to be destroyed, damaged or rendered illegible any entry in the register, or any diploma, certificate or receipt issued under this Act; or

(d) makes or causes to be made a false statement in connection with the identity or qualifications of himself or herself or any other person applying for registration in terms of this Act; or

(e) forges or, knowing it to be forged, utters any document purporting to be a document, issued under this Act, shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding R12 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

43. (1) In any criminal proceedings against any person shall be deemed not to have been registered or to act which constitutes an offence under this Act, if performed by a person who is not registered or who is not in possession of any document specified in the charge, such person shall be deemed not to have been registered or to have been in possession of such document at the time of the commission of the alleged offence, unless such person proves the contrary.
(2) In any criminal proceedings against any person appearing upon a charge of having performed an act which constitutes an offence under this Act, if performed by such person for gain, such person shall be deemed to have performed such act for gain if he or she has accepted any consideration of whatsoever nature in respect of such act.

44. (1) No remuneration shall be recoverable in respect of any act specially pertaining to the profession of an authorized person when performed by a person who is not authorized under this Act to perform such act for gain.

(2) No person, other than a registered person holding the necessary qualifications shall be eligible for or entitled to hold any appointment to any establishment, institution, body, organization or association, whether public or private, if such appointment involves the performance of any act which a person who is not registered in terms of this Act may not perform for gain: Provided that nothing in this subsection contained shall be construed as prohibiting the tuition and training of any student in social work under the supervision of a social worker, or the employment in any welfare organization or similar institution of any person undergoing tuition and training.

45. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act or any other law contained, any person who has been authorized in writing by the Board to investigate any matter relating to the tuition or training of any person registered under this Act, which tuition or training shall have the purpose of qualifying such person for the practise of any profession contemplated in this Act, may, for the purpose of making such investigation and upon the producing of such written authorization, enter any premises or institution utilized in the tuition or training of such person.

(2) Any person who prevents any person authorized in terms of subsection (1) from entering any premises or institution referred to in that subsection or hinders such person in such investigation shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding R1 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.
46. (1) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Board, make regulations relating to -

(a) (i) the election of members of the Board referred to in section 5(2);

(ii) the requirements for a valid nomination of a candidate for election as a member of the Board;

(b) the allowances payable to members of the Board and of committees of the Board when engaged in the service of the Board: Provided that -

(i) the allowances payable to a member who is in the full-time employment of the State shall not exceed the allowances payable to such member under the Public Service Act, 1980 (Act 2 of 1980);

(ii) no such member shall be required to pay into the State Revenue Fund any allowance paid to him or her in terms of any regulations made under this paragraph;

(c) the fees which shall be paid to the Board in respect of -

(i) the registration or re-registration of social workers, student social workers or social auxiliary workers, and of additional qualifications, specialities and private practices;

(ii) the restoration of a qualification, speciality, practice and name of such a social worker, student social worker and social auxiliary worker to a register;
